MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Manuscript should be typed in Times or Times New Roman font, 12 points, single-spaced with broad margins (2.5 cm, 0.99 inch). The alignment of the text should be 'justified'. Maximum number of 5 pages are acceptable. The pages should be numbered consecutively throughout the paper.

The manuscript should be presented in the order indicated.

TITLE PAGE. The first page should contain the manuscript's title, the complete name of all authors, their departmental and institutional affiliations. Email address for the corresponding author should be mentioned mandatorily.

ABSTRACT AND KEY WORDS. An abstract of not more than 250 words and up to six (6) key words in alphabetical order for coding and indexing are essential. It should be a factual statement of study objectives, methods, principal results, and conclusions. Avoid abbreviations, diagrams, and references to the text in the abstract.

TEXT. The text should be organized into an introductory section, including the background and purpose of the study, and then into sections (experimental method/hypothesis/sample, results, discussions, conclusions, etc.).

TABLES. Tables and figures should be embedded in the text. A short descriptive title should appear above each table with a clear legend and any footnotes suitably identified below.

FIGURES AND GRAPHS. Figures and graphs should be completely labeled. Captions should be typed single-spaced. Both should be inserted as jpeg, jpg or png files. The optimal width for the figure is 8 cm. Symbols, letters, arrows, and numbers must be of sufficient size and contrast to be clearly recognizable when the figure is reduced to publication size.

ABBREVIATIONS, SPELLING AND UNITS. All nomenclature should be consistent, clear, unambiguous and accordance with the rules constituted in each branch. Authors should, whenever possible, conform to the nomenclature, symbols and abbreviations established in each subject.

REFERENCES. References should be numbered in the order of their appearance in the text. Some examples are displayed.
