

St. Aloysius Institute of Technology, Jabalpur

Literary Club

Session 2022-23

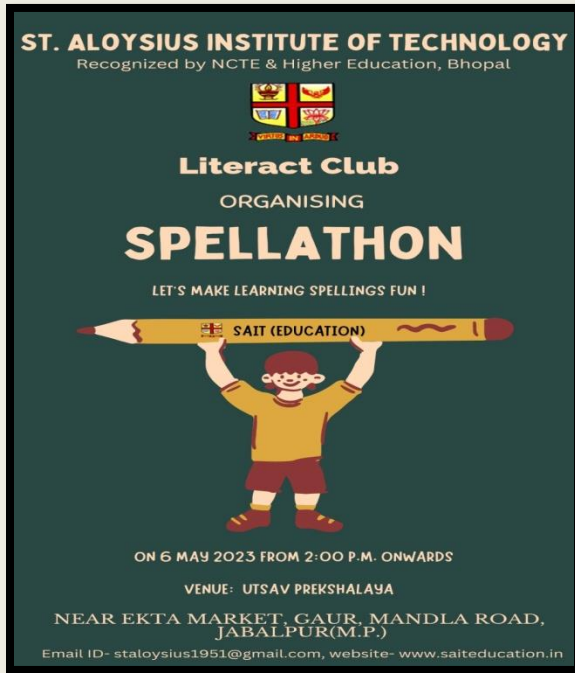

Overview of club Activities

ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

On the occasion of national Hindi day literary club of Saint Aloysius Institute of Technology organised an essay writing competition on the topic Hindi ka Vishwastariya Yogdaan in which more than 30 students participated on whole. This program was organised in order to celebrate the national Hindi day with the objective of spreading the significance of Hindi as our national language, where Dr. Renu Pandey principal SAIT address the students by emphasizing on the importance of Hindi in our daily lives and its importance. The program was conducted under the supervision of Dr Vasu Sharma incharge of the literary club and was conducted by Miss Firdos Fatma Siddiqui and miss Deepika Rajak assistant professor, SAIT

SPELLATHON

Literary club of Saint Aloysius Institute of Technology organised “SPELLATHON” competition on the in which more than 30 students participated on whole. Dr. Renu Pandey principal SAIT address the students by emphasizing on the importance of vocabulary in our daily lives and its importance. The program was conducted under the supervision of Dr Vasu Sharma incharge of the literary club and was conducted by Ms Shabnam Akhter and Ms. Chhaya Assistant professor, SAIT